

Delectables and Delights: A Time of Music, Drink, Desserts and Fun in Downtown Asheville.

ASHEVILLE, North Carolina, August 22, 2014 – This year's SWEET will prove to be a decadent evening of desserts, sparkling wines, wine, beer, spirits and shopping...to name a few of our favorite things. Chocolates, cakes, tarts, pastries and more—it doesn't get any sweeter than this. Well, maybe if you enjoy the sparkling wine, beer, and spirits.

SWEET is the place-to-be event on Friday evening from 8 to 10 pm, before the GRAND TASTING on Saturday. Evening attire or just jeans, enjoy dinner at one of the many excellent restaurants in Asheville, but save room for an evening of toothsome confections and sips at the historic Grove Arcade in downtown. Local bakers, chocolatiers, pâtissiers, wine vendors, brewers and distillers will line the corridors of this architectural wonder. The shops of the Grove Arcade will stay open late, giving you the opportunity to shop for handmade crafts, jewelry, furnishings, and more while you indulge.

Enjoy the music, the food, and the atmosphere that takes you back to a glamorous time in our city. Create a new vibrant tone as you explore all that is delectable and delightful at the 2014 SWEET event, held on the second evening of the Asheville Wine & Food Festival. Launched in 2009, the Asheville Wine & Food Festival celebrates all that's worth savoring in the mountains. Named as a Top 20 Winning Event for 2014 by the Southeast Tourism Society. This year's festival, August 21-23, 2014 offers several signature events in downtown Asheville full of culinary panache.
